House Refuses Simple Repeal Of T-H Law

Dixie-GOP Coalition Gaining Force

Washington, April 29—(AP)—A confident coalition of house Republicans and southern Democrats, driving for passage of the Wood Labor Bill, won a series of skirmishes today. Worried administration leaders finally put off the decisive vote until Tuesday.

When the house adjourned after a long day of wrangling and voting, the GOP-Dixie group had put through three amendments to its Wood bill.

They were "easing" amendments—a little less restriction on unions—but they were opposed by President Truman's forces. The Truman Democrats still hope to defeat the Wood bill and pass their own Lesinski bill to repeal the Taft-Hartley act and revive the New Deal Wagner act with modifications. Therefore they resisted all efforts to make the Wood bill more acceptable to the House when the showdown comes.

Would Re-Enact Provisions
The Wood bill likewise would "repeal" Taft-Hartley but would also re-enact most of its provisions.

The final outcome remained highly doubtful. Both sides still claimed a margin. Republicans voted almost solidly together today and were joined by about 40 Southerners. It was anybody's guess, however, whether this alignment would hold on Tuesday. Another unknown factor was the attitude of some 80 members who were not on the floor today. The most one-sided vote of the day came early in the afternoon. The opposing sides joined hands to smash down a proposal to repeal the Taft-Hartley act and revive the 1935 Wagner act in its original form without any change. The vote was 275-37.

Shortly thereafter, the coalition scored its first point.

That was when the House adopted 202 to 158, an amendment by Rep. Ford (R-Mich) which would permit strikers to vote in plant elections up to six months after being replaced in their jobs.

Could Vote Later
Prior to the amendment, the Wood bill said strikers could vote up to three months after being replaced.

The Taft-Hartley act doesn't permit replaced strikers to vote at all. The proposal to return to the 1935 Wagner act in its original form was offered by Rep. Marcantonio (AL-NY).

Rep. Biemiller (D-Wis) said the administration's bill, which was introduced by Chairman Lesinski (D-Mich) of the Labor committee, is in line with the Democratic platform.

The House then adopted another Republican-sponsored amendment easing the Wood bill. This one, offered by Rep. Morton (R-Ky), would permit workers to refuse to handle "struck work"—that is work that has been farmed out to their company by another company whose employees are on strike.

U.S. Hasn't Broken
Any Of Germany's Giant Monopolies

Washington, April 29—(AP)—American occupation officials have failed to smash a single one of Germany's giant monopolies under a crack-down law now two years old, investigators said today.

A three-man committee, flown to the scene by the army last December, found that only one such case was filed but never completed.

It recorded testimony that high decartelization officials were out of step with presidential policy, fearing it would impede German recovery.

Flatly disagreeing with this view, the committee declared that a democratic economy requires the anti-cartel policy and will prosper under it. The committee contended that the great trusts greatly facilitated Hitler's far career, and that their elimination will help safeguard peace.

The committee demanded energetic enforcement of anti-trust policy—under civilian control. The law itself was enacted by the American military government for the U. S. zone.

U.S. ACTS TO BOOST EXPORT OF HOGS

Washington, April 29—(AP)—The government acted to increase exports of pork today in a move aimed to bolster weakening hog prices.

The agriculture department made a supplemental export allocation of about 73,000,000 pounds of pork for the three months ending June 30. About 66,000,000 pounds will go to Great Britain.

Simultaneously, the Economic Operation Administration said it had earmarked $21,000,000 to finance purchase of the pork in the United States.

Miss Coplon's Loyalty Questioned By Foley

Washington, April 29—(AP)—A high justice department official testified at the espionage trial of Judith Coplon today that he filed a loyalty complaint against her when he heard she was "running around" with a Russian.

The witness, William E. Foley, said this was in January or early February—about a month before FBI agents seized Miss Coplon in New York along with Valentine A. Gubitchev, 32, a Soviet citizen.

Foley said his suspicions were also aroused when he was informed that Miss Coplon insisted on having secret FBI reports sent to her office after she had been removed from confidential work.

The defendant was until recently employed as a justice department analyst.

Foley testified that Miss Coplon kept asking to see a "top secret" FBI report on the operations of Soviet agents in this country. He said she was furious when she was dropped from handling the nation's internal security reports.

"She was very much disturbed," he said.

Asked by Defense Attorney Archibald Palmer if he regarded every Russian in this country as potentially subversive, Foley replied crisply: "Yes, possibly."

Man Given Life
For Sex Slaying
Says He's Innocent

Columbia City, Ind., April 29—(AP)—Circuit Judge Lowell Peffley today imposed a life prison sentence on Robert V. Christen, who was convicted a week ago in the sex slaying of a Fort Wayne woman.

Christen, 36-year-old former Fort Wayne druggist, was convicted on a second degree murder charge in the death of Mrs. Dorothea Howard, 36. The slaying occurred in March, 1945.

Christen, who was arrested in Denver, Colo., made a brief statement before receiving his sentence. "A grave injustice has been done," he told the court. "I am as innocent of this terrible thing as you are. God and many people know that I am innocent."

Raleigh Parrish, attorney for Christen, said he would appeal.

The judge told the attorney Christen would be taken to state prison but would be returned here at any time his presence in court was necessary.

Wallace Accuses
U.S. Of Robbing
Workers For Arms

Chicago, April 29—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace accused congress tonight of taking money away from American workers to pay for arms.

Addressing a rally in Chicago Coliseum, Wallace said in his prepared text that "two weeks ago the congress passed a $16,000,000 bill for the military establishment. It was an increase of $1,000,000 over the president's budget recommendation."

"And then suddenly congress got economy-minded. They began to look around for things to cut. The very first victim of their economy was an appropriation for labor and social security which the Senate cut $15,000,000."

"It is significant that the first thing they cut is the money that will help the people of America. That will help labor, that will strengthen their internal security. And when the two parties say it is not a significant cut, they mean that there are more and more cuts ahead—more cuts in housing, in hospital building, in school aid, in research, cuts in the good things of life."

Hogs Leave Peoria For West Coast

Peoria, Ill., April 29—(AP)—Harry Booth, manager of the union stockyards here, reported today the first shipment of hogs in history from Peoria to the West Coast is on its way.

Heretofore, he said, Peoria shipments have been either to Chicago or eastern points. However, there now is a westward movement of prime quality meat because of strong demand on the Pacific Coast and the fact that supplies there have been slow in developing this year.

The shipment consisted of 130 prize hogs averaging 227 pounds apiece, consigned by H. L. Sparks and company, a commission firm, to a Los Angeles Packing company, Booth said.

There are more than 700 yacht clubs in the country.

Talking with machine gun rapidly, Palmer repeatedly sought to show through questions that Miss Coplon had recommended that the justice department prosecute Amtorg, the Soviet trading agency, for failure to register as a foreign agent.

Foley insisted he did not remember any such recommendation. He said the prosecution of Amtorg has been under discussion for some time, have been discussed in her presence in the justice department. It may, he said, be held.

Man Who Vanished
Found In Hospital;
An Amnesia Victim

Jackson, Miss., April 29—(AP)—Donald H. Prestley, 53, who disappeared in New Orleans April 18, was found at the Veterans hospital here today an amnesia victim.

Hospital registrar Donald Harrison said Prestley's memory returned shortly after 2 p.m. He was questioning him about his New Orleans connections when his mind cleared, Harrison said.

Prestley disappeared carrying a reported $1,200 in cash and checks for deposit in a New Orleans bank. "I only had about $200," Harrison quoted Prestley as saying. "I remember leaving either home or the shop and picking up someone along the way. Then every thing goes blank."

Harrison said Prestley did not know who he had picked up.

Harrison said Prestley gave him his correct New Orleans address and asked that his wife, Mrs. Maurine Prestley, be notified immediately. He also recalled being in partnership with Ralph Nacaise in the Woodcraft Manufacturing Co., in New Orleans, Harrison said.

Foreign Diplomats
Barred From Much Of Romanian Lands

Bucharest, Romania, April 29—(AP)—Foreign diplomats were ordered today to stay out of about two-thirds of Romania's territory, including a belt 30 miles wide around the frontiers.

The government handed to foreign embassies, legations and missions a circular note listing "restricted areas" in which the staff members will not be permitted to travel.

These include the provinces of Banat, in southwestern Romania bordering Yugoslavia; Bucovina, in the northwest; Moldavia, in the east; and Dobruja, on the Black Sea. In addition, 11 counties are listed.

As the order stands, traveling in Romania would be severely limited. The diplomats are expected to ask for more details.

Wage Hike Offered
To Workers Of 7
Deere Co. Plants

Moline, Ill., April 29—(AP)—A wage increase has been offered to CIO United Auto Workers in seven Deere and company plants, the union said today. The amount was not disclosed.

Morris Field, UAW international representative, said he believed the offer was the first this year by any major farm equipment manufacturer. About 15,000 employees would be affected.

The UAW and the company have been negotiating since March 23. Field said the union has not yet accepted the company's offer. It contends the wage proposal is not high enough.

Plants concerned are the three in East Moline, and others in Dubuque, Des Moines, Waterloo, and Ottumwa, Iowa.

No agreement has been reached on the UAW's demands for a $100 monthly pension for all workers over 60, for an employer-paid accident and sickness insurance plan, and on a grievance procedure.

CHICAGO TO BOYCOTT
PHONE RATE HEARINGS

Chicago, April 29—(AP)—Mayor Martin H. Kennelly said Chicago will take no further part in hearings on higher telephone rates until the council utility committee has set a policy.

The Illinois Commerce Commission has been conducting hearings on the petition of the Illinois Bell Telephone company to boost rates.

Kennelly asked the corporation counsel to go before the commission tomorrow to seek postponement of hearings until after the utility committee meets on Thursday.

Soviets Say They Didn't Authorize Barge Stoppages

Berlin, April 29—(AP)—Soviet headquarters notified the British today that Russian officers who tried to seize control of barge traffic in British sector canals had acted without authority.

British and Soviet transportation chiefs arranged for a conference tomorrow on the question of barge traffic. That seemed to end a blockade-within-a-blockade controversy which flared unexpectedly Wednesday.

The British had won their point. Freight carriers moved normally through all western sector canals, links in a greater Berlin waterway system over which the Russians claim general control under four-power rules.

Why the canal issue was raised by Russians this week remained a question, but a British authority contended:

"It is clear they tried to pull one, and didn't get away with it." Officers of the Soviet canal police had gone to locks in the British sector both Wednesday and yesterday with the declared intention of stopping all barges not registered with the Soviet water control commission. The British moved military police to the locks. Traffic was interrupted two or three times, but resumed.

Testifies Party
Financing Defense
Of Top U.S. Reds

New York, April 29—(AP)—Fifty dollars of FBI funds are being used in the defense of the 11 American communist leaders, a government witness revealed today.

Miss Angela Calomiris, Greenwich Village photographer who has served as an FBI informant in the communist party seven years, testified she gave the money to the trial defense fund.

She added that the FBI paid all of her expenses including this $50. The testimony was given on cross-examination in which Miss Calomiris also revealed that she had joined several organizations besides the communist party. Other FBI undercover workers have testified similarly in the trial.

The photographer revealed that she had taken pictures of many individuals and groups in the party. These were included in the voluminous files she turned over to the government security agency.

She said she joined the CIO Office and Professional Workers at the direction of her branch organizer in the party. Other groups with which she affiliated were the International Workers Order, the American Labor Party and the Progressive Party.

Railroads, Unions
Reach Agreement
On Vacation Plans

Chicago, April 29—(AP)—The nation's railroads reached agreement today on vacations with unions representing 300,000 railroad engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and switchmen.

The agreement, under negotiation since March 25, provides one week paid vacation after one year of service and two weeks after five years. It takes effect July 1.

The men now receive one week. The unions had asked for annual vacations ranging from 15 to 30 days, depending on length of service.

A carrier spokesman said the agreement corresponds generally to the vacation plan now in effect for the roads' non-operating employees.

Announcement of the agreement was made by the chairman of the three-carrier conference committees—D. P. Loomis for the western lines, H. A. Enoch for the east, and H. A. Benton for the southeast.

Arrest 61 Seamen
After Union Clash
With Canada Cops

Saint John, N.B., April 29—(AP)—Sixty-one seamen were arrested today after two dockside clashes between striking Canadian seamen's union members and more than 200 policemen.

Two seamen were taken to a hospital. Many others, both seamen and police, suffered less serious injuries in the short, sharp fray in which both sides wielded ax-handle clubs.

Among those arrested, after a rival seafarers' International Union (AFL) crew was put aboard the strike-bound freighter Cottrell behind a protecting police line, was Edward Reid, CSU port agent. Another freighter moved into the harbor to await a second SIU crew.

The clashes came on the 29th day of a strike which has been marked by considerable violence. The strike started March 31, while many Canadian ships were at sea and in foreign ports, after eastern Canadian ship-owners had announced the signing of contracts with only SIU.

Jessup, Soviet Ministers Talk Over Berlin Blockade

China Communists Concentrate On Trapping Nationalist Armies

Shanghai, April 29—(AP)—Chinese Communist forces evidently were concentrating tonight on an effort to trap nationalist armies southeast of Nanking rather than aiming directly at nervous Shanghai.

(The Communist radio asserted that the "major part" of seven nationalist armies already had been trapped roughly 80 miles south of Nanking and was being "annihilated.") It said more than 40,000 government soldiers already had been captured.

(Soviet armies would be 140,000 or more men. They were identified by the Communist radio as the 51st, fourth, 28th, 45th, 99th, 66th and 20th armies, all of which it said had been captured.)

Accuse Missing
Sales Clerk Of $200,000 Fraud

Chicago, April 29—(AP)—A federal grand jury today accused a missing sales clerk of a $200,000 mail fraud. Edward B. Korpusinski, 31, former chief sales clerk of the Petroleum Heat and Power company, Chicago, is charged with running a scheme for selling steel pipe he did not own.

Post office inspectors have been hunting him on the west coast for several weeks. U. S. District Attorney Otto Kerner, Jr., described Korpusinski's alleged operations thus:

Using printed forms of his firm, Korpusinski bought large quantities of scarce steel pipe from the Valley Steel company of St. Louis between March and November, 1948. He paid twice the list price and charged it to his firm's account.

He sold the pipe to various customers and directed the St. Louis company to ship it to them. When the Valley Steel company billed the Petroleum Heat and Power company for the goods, Korpusinski used his official position to cancel the bills. Several times he turned over sums totaling $30,000 to the St. Louis concern to avoid suspicion.

Harriman Tells
Senate For Need
For Atlantic Pact

Washington, April 29—(AP)—Marshall plan ambassador W. Averell Harriman said today "we are moving away from war," but he declared America must help rearm Atlantic pact nations to maintain that peace momentum.

His testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations committee wound up the first week's hearings on the 12-nation Atlantic treaty which, if ratified by the Senate, will bind the United States and Canada to a 20-year mutual-aid alliance with 10 countries of Western Europe.

Harriman, the No. 2 man in the European recovery program, told the Senators that while nothing should interfere with that economic aid project he "earnestly believes we should help our associates in their own efforts to build up means to defend themselves."

That was a reference to the administration's proposal to give Atlantic pact members $1,130,000,000 worth of military equipment to bolster their armed forces against any threat of aggression.

Public Enemy No. 1
Of FBI Is Taken
To Federal Prison

Indianapolis, April 29—(AP)—Clyde Milton Johnson, a Miami, Fla., jail fugitive whom the FBI calls public enemy No. 1, was taken to the federal penitentiary at Terre Haute, Ind., today.

Johnson, who was captured after a gun battle in the heart of the city a week ago, was moved from General hospital by ambulance.

He will stay in the Terre Haute prison until next Friday. At that time, he'll appear as a witness in a U. S. commissioner's hearing here for his woman companion, Billie Frances Glaze.

The woman earlier this week demanded a full hearing, with witnesses, on charges of helping Johnson escape from the Dade county jail in Miami.

Johnson has indicated he prefers to be taken to Memphis, Tenn., when he has recovered from his bullet wounds, to face bank robbery charges.

DIES OF HEART ATTACK
Chicago, April 29—(AP)—Merritt Hazard, 41, of (5012 Marion Ave.) Rockford, Ill., suffered a fatal heart attack today while attending the racing program at Sportsman's Park in suburban Cicero. Hazard's wife had accompanied him to the races.

Shanghai, April 29—(AP)—The Red broadcast, heard in San Francisco by the Associated Press, asserted the trap was closed when Communist troops captured a line of towns on a 120-mile arc stretching east and south from Wuhu, 50 miles southwest of Nanking, through Langki and Kwangteh to Wuhing.

(Communist broadcasts also are normally heard in Shanghai, but all dispatches from that threatened city reiterated that the scanty communiques of the nationalist garrison were the only official and permissible news.)

Says Brain Damage
At Birth May Set
Personality Traits

Chicago, April 29—(AP)—An osteopathic physician said today that brain damage at birth may account for lifetime personality traits of a human being.

In a paper presented to the 49th annual convention of the Illinois Osteopathic Association, Dr. S. V. Roebuck of Chicago said:

"The damage to circulation to the brain occurring during the birth of a child leaves many small hemorrhages in the brain that heal, leaving small scar fibers which interfere with the outgrowth of nerve fibers in the brain."

"These nerve fibers normally grow later, connecting various brain centers. Disconnected or inadequately connected brain centers due to these small fibers of scar tissue in the brain probably account for the instability of emotions and for reduced function of highly specialized centers in the brain."

Thus, he said, "the individual's destiny may be strongly directed as the result of injury to the head and upper neck joints—before a breath of air has been drawn into the lungs."

Opens Fire, Routs
3 Gunmen Who
Try To Rob Him

Chicago, April 29—(AP)—Three gunmen shot at Sam Brodsky, 44, and hit him in the hand but didn't get the $2,500 they were after.

Brodsky, owner of a restaurant at 45th place and Packers avenue, fought off the men with his Italian revolver and reported to police he believed he had wounded one of them.

The shooting occurred a block from the restaurant just after Brodsky had withdrawn the money from a bank. The men, two of them negroes, cursed his car. Brodsky, who suspected something wrong when he noticed them following, opened fire immediately.

One of the gunmen fired five shots at him. The blast shattered the windshield of his car and wounded him in the hand.

His shots scared them off. They were driving a new sedan which police believe was stolen.

Fear Bendix Strike
Will Shut Down
Hudson Motor Co.

Detroit, April 29—(AP)—A crippling supplier strike threatened today to shut down a fourth major automobile industry "Independent."

Hudson Motor Car Co. said it was "about to close" because of a continuing strike at the Bendix Aviation Corp. at South Bend, Ind. Bendix is the industry's principal supplier of brakes.

A Hudson shutdown would idle an additional 25,000 workers and boost the Bendix-induced strike idle total to nearly 60,000.

It also would leave only Studebaker and Willys-Overland of the main independents still in production. Studebaker said today its operations were not threatened by the Bendix strike.

The industry's "Big Three" thus far have not been hit by a brake shortage. General Motors and Ford have removed their dies from the struck Bendix plant and Chrysler has other sources of supply.

Hudson, calling its plight to the attention of President Truman and congressional leaders, said it had been discriminated against by the CIO United Auto Workers.

Despite a court order, it said, it has not been permitted by the UAW to remove its dies from Bendix as have other companies.

BUYS LUMBER CO.
Kewanee, Ill., April 29—(AP)—The Fullerton Lumber Company of Minneapolis today purchased the Johnson Lumber Company of Kewanee.

ble source of war news.)

The Shanghai garrison's latest announcement conceded that Communists had taken Wuhing, which is 36 miles east of Kashing and 40 miles north of Hangchow. Kashing is the key to the Shanghai-Hangchow railway.

It said the Communists were about 35 miles west of Shanghai in the vicinity of Kunshan, but that this appeared to be only a flank-protecting operation for the main drive farther south.

The Communists seemed in no hurry to press faster or harder along the direct route eastward to Shanghai. Nor did they seem to have met any serious opposition.

The garrison said about 10,000 Reds were west of Shanghai, that the Red 23rd army (normally about 20,000 men) was in the region of Lake Tai, some 50 miles southwest of Shanghai, and that three Red armies were in Southern Anhwei province.

Captain Of Police
Says Mrs. Grinde
Committed Suicide

Chicago, April 29—(AP)—A police captain said today he's "almost positive" the scissors stabbing of Mrs. Hazel Grinde was suicide. But the state's attorney thinks it was murder.

The body of Mrs. Grinde, 56-year-old widow, was found Wednesday night on the bathroom floor of her second story apartment. There were eight stab wounds in the back of her neck. Bloody scissors lay on the top of a hamper nearby.

Capt. Patrick O'Connell pointed out that all the wounds but one were shallow. He said they might be "hesitation marks"—uncertain, hesitant cuts inflicted by a person trying to work up courage for the fatal thrust. He said there were virtually no signs of a struggle, and he had learned that Mrs. Grinde feared she had cancer.

John S. Boyle, the state's attorney, said he doubted that Mrs. Grinde ended her own life. He said his office will continue to investigate the case from a murder angle.

Believe Robbery
Motive In Murder
Mystery In Peoria

Peoria, Ill., April 29—(AP)—Police theorized today robbery might have been the motive for the fatal shooting of Frank Walker, about 50, of Leighton, Ala.

His body was found on a cemetery road yesterday and was identified by his landlady, Mrs. Mildred Chase. She said she saw him last on Wednesday morning.

Walker had worked at the Caterpillar Tractor plant for seven months but did not report for work Wednesday night.

Sheriff Earl Spainhower said he learned Walker recently had won an expensive wristwatch, had pawned it several times, redeemed it again several days ago and had bought a second watch. Neither was found on his body or among his effects.

The sheriff also said a car was stolen by Walker's assailant. The car, owned by another Caterpillar employee, was taken from the plant lot and was found later in East Peoria. A handkerchief and a letter from Walker's wife were found in it.

American Woman
Clips Hair, Pours
Acid On Fraulein

Munich, Germany, April 29—(AP)—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of an American sergeant's wife accused of throwing acid on a German girl, military government officials disclosed today.

The American woman was identified as Mrs. Lennie Martin and is reported to live in Fitch, Okla.

Negro said Government officials said Mrs. Martin was reported to have left this week for the United States aboard a Dutch ship.

Donald C. Noggle, military government district attorney for Bavaria, said Mrs. Martin is accused of throwing acid on Elizabeth Bauer, 18, and cutting of the German girl's hair in the belief she was friendly with the American woman's husband.

Mrs. Martin is charged with causing Miss Bauer bodily harm and depriving her of liberty.

Noggle's version was that Mrs. Martin, with a maid's help, cut the girl's hair, then removed the girl's slacks and panties and poured a household cleaning disinfectant on her.

Reports Progress Satisfactory

New York, April 29—(AP)—A United States spokesman said tonight the American-Russian talks over lifting the Berlin blockade "are proceeding satisfactorily."

The spokesman indicated the private conversations between U. S. Ambassador Philip C. Jessup and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik will continue, but he did not give any date for the next meeting.

Jessup reported on the two and one-half hour talk with Malik at secret meetings with British and French delegates and arranged to go to Washington late tonight for a conference tomorrow with Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

No Official Agreement
There was no official word whether any agreement had been reached. However, the report of the American delegation spokesman that the talks are proceeding satisfactorily has been seen in United Nations circles here as a sign the East and West are moving slowly toward an agreement to end the Berlin blockade and effect a meeting of the four-power council of foreign ministers perhaps in May.

Jessup talked with Malik in the Soviet delegation building at 680 Park avenue. He entered the building at 4:31 p.m. (2:31 p.m. CST) and left it at 7:02 p.m. (5:02 p.m. CST). He was smiling when he entered and smiling when he departed.

He declined to make any comments, saying any information would come from a briefing which might be held at the U.S. delegation office at 2 Park avenue. The briefing produced the bare statement that the talks are proceeding satisfactorily.

Malik Schedules Talk
Today's meeting was scheduled after Malik telephoned Jessup this morning and proposed that they get together for the fifth of their series of talks on the blockade. The meeting began at 4:31 p.m. (2:31 p.m. CST).

Western circles in the U.N. immediately speculated that I. Malik has received definite information from Moscow to answer Jessup's questions about when and under what conditions the Berlin blockade will be lifted.

2. Malik proposed to Jessup that the four-power council of foreign ministers meet about May 25 in Paris for a review of the whole Berlin problem.

During a meeting of the Steering committee of the U.N. assembly at Flushing Meadow Park this morning, Malik suddenly urged that the assembly set a deadline for "1 p.m., May 18" to complete

GET THOSE RURAL MAIL BOXES IN SHAPE

It would be news if a week could be found that has not been set aside for some specific promotion. One week that is of importance to thousands of farmers in Central Illinois, however, is the "Rural Mail Box Improvement Week" May 1-8.

Rural free delivery was the first and major step to remove the farmer from isolation. It was set up to help keep him informed on the affairs of the community and the world because a democracy must be built upon an informed citizenry.

The daily delivery of mail on the farm is a tremendously important function. And the mail box is a major link in the chain. Neat, properly identified mail boxes serve the mail carrier and the farmer well.

Neat, uniform mail boxes on uniform stands down a stretch of road lend a sense of stability and well being to the area. One can almost judge the type of family living in a farm home and the type of people who make up the community by the type and condition of the mail box.

May 1-8 is a good time to get those important pieces of equipment in good functional condition.

Not Enough Husbands To Go Around; Why Not Polygyny

By Hal Boyle

New York—P.—There is a surplus of women in America.

Supply has now outrun demand in this important field. And the ratio of excess women to men is likely to continue.

"What can be done about it? Particularly since medical science at present is unable to arrange a switchover in posterity production techniques—by means of which the stork would bring more baby boys and fewer baby girls.

Throughout history our civilizations have evolved several techniques for solving the problem of the excess female.

Some societies have maintained a balance of the sexes by the cruel method of female infanticide. They simply killed unwanted girl babies or left them to die. In other societies all unwed women were taken into religious orders.

The ancient Hindus found an easy way to dispose of widows. The bereft ladies gallantly cremated themselves on the funeral pyres of their husbands to prove they were excellent wives.

Custom Had Two Advantages

This custom, known as suttee, had two advantages. It kept the husband from being lonely in the life beyond. Sutee has pretty well died out now, however, since the British government outlawed it in India. It seems too many widows were being thrown into the flames—instead of jumping in of their own accord.

But by far the commonest solution for the problem of the extra female has been polygyny, the system under which a man has several wives.

Discussing this in the current American Mercury, Dr. Ralph Linton, sterling professor of anthropology at Yale university, says polygyny has worked successfully in a number of civilizations. He says it is doing well now in Madagascar.

"I remember the gentle sympathy which the women of the Sakaiva tribe extended to my wife because she was an only wife," he writes.

Dr. Linton thinks that if polygyny is ever legally recognized in western countries it will "find its most enthusiastic supporters among career women."

To an American husband this system certainly has obvious merits. I think ten wives would be about right, if all remained deductible for income tax purposes.

First Marriage For Love

Under polygyny you would marry the first time for love alone—as now often happens under monogamy.

The second wife would be a $52,000-a-year career woman, and she would bring her $1,000 pay check home in her mouth every week.

The third wife would be a wonderful cook.

The fourth would be maid and housekeeper—a well-muscled lass able to move heavy furniture around by herself.

The fifth would be a trained nurse, skilled at mixing hot toddies when I had a cold.

The sixth would be a plump young baby sitter. She'd care for the children and do odd jobs like bringing my slippers and lighting my cigars.

The seventh would sing and dance at home entertainments.

The eighth would be a secretary and an accountant. She'd keep the family budget.

The ninth I would take to sports events. And she'd never ask questions like: "Why don't they arrest that man if he is stealing bases?"

The tenth would be a glamorous talented conversationalist. I'd take her along when the boss invited me to his house for dinner.

I think with ten wives like that any man could have a happy home. There is only one thing wrong with polygyny from a husband's viewpoint.

"He has no days off," says Dr. Linton.

It sounds too much like monogamy there.

American steel mills produced 88,500,000 tons of ingot steel in 1948. The figure on finished steel was almost 66,000,000 tons.

The oath of office to the newly-elected officials will be administered by State's Attorney Albert Hall.

Mayor Ernest L. Hogland will be inducted for a third term. Other officials to be installed are City Clerk John R. Phillips and City Treasurer Ilma B. Cline, both retained; Alderman James Flynn, first ward; Byron Brune, second ward; Kenneth Woods, third ward; Crit Haneline, fourth ward. The three last-named men are newly-elected councilmen.

The other four aldermen who complete the council are Alderman Frank Baker, first ward; Alderman Lloyd Reid, second ward; Alderman T. C. Chumley, third ward; Alderman Allen Kelly, fourth ward.

The installation will be held in connection with an adjourned meeting of the council. The outgoing council will finish up any business remaining from last Monday's session, after which the new group will be sworn in.

No set program has been planned, but a few informal remarks probably will be made by the new officials. The session is open to the public, and numerous relatives, friends and interested citizens are expected to be present.

Officials elected earlier this month will begin their duties May 1. The new council will hold its first regular session next Monday evening, May 2.

He is now retired and resides in Springfield.

Social Security Representative Here Each Week

Some Morgan county men and women over 65 years of age are losing part of their social security payments because they do not apply for them promptly, the Springfield social security office reports. Back payments can be made under the law for only three months before the month they are applied for.

Although most people do get all the social security payments they are entitled to, the Social Security office would like to see every person get all the money possible from his social security account.

People over 65 who are not working now but who have worked under social security should find out about their social security rights even though they plan to go back to work later. They should ask the Springfield office, or its representative who is in the Jacksonville Employment office every Thursday morning.

XXXV

THAT evening, as we were having our dinner, there was a sound in the back entry as of a centipede with new shoes. Then a tap on our door.

"Yes?" I called.

"Could I see you a minute?"

The voice was muffled, but I recognized Nancy.

I went into the hall. Nancy was red-eyed and sniffling. In her hands she was twisting and untwisting a handkerchief. Joe was watching me anxiously. Supporting herself on the banister at the head of the basement stairs was a frail little old woman, shrunken to child size. Her lips moved nervously over her toothless mouth. Her eyes, too, watched me anxiously.

"This is my grandmother," Nancy said between hiccupping sobs. "She's 92 and she has no home. We've just been over to my aunt's and she said she'd burn the house down if she didn't get rid of Granny. She says she's got to go to the hospital and wait there to die."

I looked startled at such frank discussion of the old lady in her presence.

"She's deaf," Nancy said. "Like an organ grinder's monkey, the old lady turned troubled eyes from one to another of us."

"Oh, Mrs. Roberts," Nancy blurted, "could we keep Granny here with us? She's so little and afraid. I can't let them put her in a hospital, now that we've got such a big house to live in."

I'd done a shift the day before in the senile ward, where patients had nothing to look forward to except death. One had thought I was her daughter, Bertie, and that the men in the next ward were her sons, and she kept calling me to tell the boys it was time to get up.

I hadn't been able to get her cry out of my mind; my sympathies were raw and bleeding on the subject of unwanted old people. "I'll tell you what I think you'd better do," I said to Nancy. "Take her downstairs and make her a good cup of tea, and when we've finished our dinner and you've had yours, we'll talk it all over."

AN hour later I went downstairs. The old lady was peacefully asleep on the davenport; her waxy transparency made me realize she wouldn't be with us long. The children were in the laundry washing their supper dishes.

"She needs to be near you," I said. "There's a bed stored in the corner of the basement, Joe. You set it up in your living room. Then your grandmother can live here with you."

"Couldn't she sleep on the davenport?" Nancy asked. "She's so little she has lots of room there, and it would clutter us up to have a bed in the room."

I agreed to that and gave Nancy extra linen and blankets to use, feeling that young people as tender as they couldn't have too much encouragement.

I was undressing for bed when there was a tap on my door. Again Nancy was crying.

"Sit down," I said, "and tell me all about it."

She sobbed and said she felt deceitful. She sobbed again and said that's why she had to tell me. She sobbed again and said she didn't tell me sooner because she was afraid we wouldn't let her have the apartment. She now spent a few seconds in a good, hard cry. Then she said I had been so kind she didn't see how she could ever tell me.

I reminded her that a coward dies a thousand deaths. "Come now, let's have it."

She sobbed. "I'll have a baby in five more months."

"Don't you want it? Aren't you glad?" I asked, disappointed at this new outburst of tears.

"Oh, yes," she said, "but I can't bear to think of having to go looking for another apartment."

"You don't have to do that," I said. "Babies are no novelty to us. We take them in our stride. I made a mental note, however, to remember to oil the washing machine."

And I looked at the clock. Was it possible that only a few hours had elapsed since Rob and I took solemn oath not to admit any more lodgers?

I did a little mental arithmetic: Rob and myself; Claudia, Mickey, and Mike; Nancy, Joe, Grandma, and the baby; Roger, Mary, and the twins. We were still well under the OPA load limit. Enrolled to 15 people, we had only 12½.

MARY and the boys flew in three days later. She was short, plump, blond, sensible and practical, and equal, it seemed, to struggling along with an irresponsible Roger. Mary quickly discouraged resumption of parties at the Annex. "Fun's fun," she said, "but we can't afford to go to the Officers' Club every Saturday night and I'm agin getting up and frying eggs for the gang who's had the dance. Let 'em go somewhere else."

Roger, who until recently had led the parade, had blown a gasket. All he could do was sit and sound his horn. He and the children.

They were identical twins, chubby, rosy-cheeked, with dark hair like their father's and a clear skin like Mary's. Their eyes were blue and they were full of mischief. Their leather lungs and oversize pipes gave off for 14 hours at a stretch. But it was a happy noise they made. Had they been fretful, quarrelsome children, we couldn't have stood them. As it was, their energies were spent in squealing and in chasing each other. We quickly had a gate made for the top of the stairs to keep them from overflowing down into our part of the house; only the sound and not the fury reached us.

Murder Suspects Submit To Lie Detector Tests

Carrollton—Lie detector tests given Thursday at the headquarters of the Illinois Bureau of Criminal Investigation at Springfield have substantiated the confessions of Carson Segar and Curtis S. Chapman, teen-age youths who admitted guilt in the fatal shooting of Howard A. Heininger, Jerseyville insurance agent, according to information released Friday by Greene county officials.

The youths also submitted to fingerprint tests, the results of which are reported to be further indications of their guilt.

Laboratory tests were also taken of materials found at the scene of the crime.

According to Greene County Sheriff Arthur Powell, the suspects have maintained an air of total indifference throughout the entire procedure of questioning and investigation.

This was also true as the youths reenacted the murder at the scene of the crime, declared officials.

The boys were taken to Springfield Thursday by Sheriff Powell and State Attorney L. H. Mehrhoff.

They were returned to Carrollton and are again in the Greene county jail, where they are being held, officially charged with murder.

Iowa Will Pay Veterans Bonus

Iowa World War II veterans now living in Illinois will be able to make application for the Iowa state bonus in a short time. It is expected that application blanks will be distributed during the early part of May. They will be available through the Illinois Veterans Commission.

Eligibility requirements of the bonus include a provision that a veteran must have served not less than 120 days prior to December 31, 1946. Rate of payment has been set at $10 a month for domestic service and $12.50 for each month of foreign duty up to a maximum of $500.

Members of the national guard are eligible for only that part of their service that was actually under complete jurisdiction of the federal government. Service offices of the Illinois Veterans Commission have been instructed to assist veterans of other states in properly executing application forms. Iowa veterans should contact the nearest office of the Commission as soon as possible so that when forms are received they can be notified immediately and thus avoid unnecessary delays.

In Morgan county the office of the Commission is located at 6-7 Morrison Block in Jacksonville.

Day At The Races

Courtsey Keeps Pace With Bluegrass Ponies

BY RIDGE

The first race was a matter of minutes away at Keeneland.

Eight two-year-olds, feeling right at home in the Bluegrass country where they were foaled, danced postward past the grandstand.

A 200-pound gentleman with a listful of bills squealed along the aisle toward us. He appeared somewhat bellowed, but wore a determined look as he headed for the windows under the grandstand.

Lurching slightly, one of his feet planted itself directly on one of ours.

"Beg pardon," the big fellow exclaimed, never losing a stride as he lumbered on to his destination.

Others followed in his footsteps through the crowded aisles, down the stairs to the mutual windows. The tote board clicked off the seconds while the figures mounted rapidly.

"Excuse me, sir—beg pardon," became familiar phrases as we wiggled to avoid the procession.

Politics Of The Opera

Emily Post would have revealed in this atmosphere. And at a race track! We had believed such courtesies were reserved for the opera.

But this was the Bluegrass, where the best traditions of the thoroughbred sport are cherished and kept alive.

The crowd tensed when the clock indicated post time. Far across the grassy oval the horses were in the starting gate. There was a hushed moment when the crowd strained to see what was taking place in the gate. Field glasses were trained on that important spot.

Eight spirited bangtails bolted out of the gate. Their speed accelerated as they hit stride, heading for the home stretch with tails and manes straight out.

In the grandstand, clubhouse and along the rail there was a rising murmur. No ribald shouts, no yelling like you hear at a baseball or football game. Just an undercurrent of intent concentration on those flying ponies.

"Listen to 'em pray," said our companion and informant on racing as it is done down Lexington way.

They Like To Concentrate

The thoroughbreds pounded past the judges' stand. The three charmed numbers "in the money" winked on the board. Still the crowd of 15,000 failed to demonstrate, at least in a noisy way.

We picked up the idea that Kentuckyans like to concentrate when their horses are running—they have not time for outward expressions, except a pleading murmur that flows from their lips.

Between races we made a trip down to the mutual department. Long lines formed in front of each window.

"Beg pardon," said a lady with a Scarlet O'Hara makeup, slicing her way through the waiting lines. She should have gone around. The gentlemen in the lines gallantly let her through.

After negotiating an investment at one of the windows we returned to our seat in the grandstand. We half expected it to be occupied, but a form sheet on the seat was sufficient to hold it against all comers.

"Once you get a seat it is yours all afternoon," our informant told us. "The crowd will respect a coat, field glass case, or any other article of personal property."

The Tots Are "Out"

This, we decided, was horse racing at its best. We had been at the track an hour and our pocket hadn't been picked. Neither had sharp-eyed totos singled us out for a victim. Signs in prominent places inviting the public to "report to the management at once any attempt at touting or sale of tip sheets," were reassuring.

We were told that Keeneland, outside of Lexington on the Versailles pike, is a model in promotion of the sport of kings. A non-profit organization, it is under supervision of men whose names are known throughout the thoroughbred world. Their farms extend around the countryside, seldom touched by plough. Brood mares and colts that graze over the rolling acres are their crop.

Colts start their education at home. All of the larger horse farms maintain private tracks. Calumet, Idle Hour, Faraway, and other well-known stables can pick out a few of their promising youngsters for a bang-up race anytime.

If the colts outrun their playmates in the pastures and on private tracks, they may be promoted to Keeneland for the spring or fall meets. The Lexington track is a feeder for the Kentucky Derby. Many of the hopefuls in the Run for the Roses are tuned up on the smaller track.

Old Man O'War sleeps not far distant beneath a larger than life-size statue done in bronze.

Horse country! Where they breed them, race them, talk about them. They'll tell you there's something in the bluegrass that makes colts grow stronger and run faster. Lime-stone, maybe, in the brooks that water the pastures.

They are parading to the post again. Shy Guy, Free America, with a few other rivals out for the mile and one-eighth romp. The start is made near the stands where everyone can see the business of getting the horses into the gate.

Shy Guy led the field—a sort of foregone conclusion. The mutuels showed him to be a heavy favorite. There are always optimistic customers at a race track, however, who pin their hopes on a 12 or 20-to-one shot making the favorite look like a bum. Not in this race!

Shy Guy was equal to the occasion. He was trailed across the finish line by a couple of other short-priced entries.

Down the stretch behind the leaders galloped a plucky little mare. She turned her head toward the crowd in an apologetic manner as she loped across the finish line, six lengths back of the winner.

We know from her despairing look she meant, "Beg Pardon!"

New York Stock Market

New York, April 29 — (AP) — Supply and demand were in close balance in the stock market today—the result was a scramble of small gains and losses.

The price trend was indecisive from the start of trading. Numerous issues remained at Thursday's closing levels and many were up a trifle one minute and a bit lower the next.

Trading proceeded at the same limited pace of earlier sessions this week. Turnover was at the rate of around 800,000 shares for the full day.

Higher prices were paid most of the day for Bethlehem Steel, Youngstown, Studebaker, Montgomery Ward, Woolworth, Pullman (at a new high for the year), Liggett & Myers, Electric Power Light, American Smelting, Du Pont, American Tobacco, Illinois Central and Standard Oil (NJ).

Holding back were U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, American Telephone, International Nickel, American Can, Dow Chemical, U. S. Gypsum, Santa Fe, Nickel Plate, Texas company, Pacific Western Oil, and Twentieth Century-Fox.

NEW CROP OF WHEAT DELIVERIES HOLD SMALL ADVANCES

Chicago, April 29 — (AP) — May wheat slipped a bit on the Board of Trade today, but did not repeat yesterday's tumble. It was down around a cent most of the session. New crop wheat deliveries held on to modest gains most of the day.

Oats, which had shown resistance during yesterday's break, were weak throughout the session today. Corn was mostly lower, particularly the May delivery. Soybeans and hard advanced, the latter being helped by reports the government had approved large pork sales to Great Britain.

A sustaining factor throughout the session was an overnight announcement of fairly large authorizations of funds to foreign countries for purchase of American wheat and flour.

Receipts were: wheat 4 cars, corn 71, oats 42, soybeans 9.

Wheat closed 13 lower to 13 higher, May $2.17-1/2, corn was 14 lower to 4 higher, May $1.32-1/2, oats were 3 1/2 lower, May $1.32, soybeans were 3-1/4 higher, May $2.24-1/2, and hard was 7 to 15 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $1.97.

LOOK—IT'S A BIRD

No it isn't a bird—nor is it Superman. The young man you see defying gravity so neatly is Gale Staples, Carrollton high school pole vaulter, who was snapped by a photographer as he cleared a record breaking mark of 11 ft. 9 in. in the Greene county track meet held at Roodhouse Thursday.

Staples, whose new mark broke Bill Volles' record of 11 ft. 8 in., helped the Carrollton track men to a win over their Greene county foes in the 41st annual meet held in that section.

He cleared 12 ft. 1 in. at the Illinois Valley track meet last year. One of the best prep pole vaulters in this part of Illinois, Staples is expected to repeat in the state track meet at Champaign this season.

Cincinnati Reds Down Pittsburgh Pirates 7 To 3

Cincinnati, April 29 — (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds, down 3 to 1, got rolling in the late innings tonight to give Pittsburgh a 7 to 3 beating in the first night game of the season here. There was a crowd of 20,046 on hand for the affair.

Howard Fox, winning his first limited the Pirates to six hits and game of the season for the Reds, his own error helped the corsairs to get started for two of their runs.

Pittsburgh played with a second string second base-shortstop combination in place of the injured Stan Rojak and Danny Murtaugh but Pete Castiglione, up from Indianapolis, got two hits in four times up and drove in two runs. He filled in for Rojak.

Rookie Bill Werle held the Reds under moderate control until the third when they broke out in a rash of singles that were good for three runs.

The Reds needed only two hits for their pair of runs in the seventh but one of them was a double by Johnny Wyrostek, who also contributed a triple to the Cincinnati cause. Errors by Claude McCullough and Monte Basgall helped the Reds to their final run in the eighth.

Durocher Ordered Before Chandler In Cincinnati Tuesday

Cincinnati, April 29 — (AP) — Leo Durocher, the bad boy of baseball, bringing assault charges against time indefinitely.

Commissioner A. B. Chandler dropped the bomb on Leo as a result of a purported altercation with a fan yesterday at the Polo grounds. He ordered the New York Giants' manager to come to Cincinnati next Tuesday and tell his story.

"The commissioner is making a complete investigation of the case," Walter Mulberry, secretary of baseball, said in announcing the suspension.

Durocher told a news conference in Boston, where the Giants play tonight, that the affair was "ridiculous."

Then he announced that Coach Frankie Frisch, a man after his own style, would handle the club, and that he would return to New York.

After announcing that Frisch would take over, Durocher said, "from now on Mr. Stoneham (Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants) does all the talking."

Reports vary as to just what happened to Fred Boysen, 22, a Brooklyn fan, after the bums walked the Giants, 15 to 2.

Boysen, who was released from a hospital today, said Durocher approached him from behind as he crossed the playing field, knocked him down and kicked him in the stomach.

The Lip, however, said he is innocent. Some one snatched at his cap, he grabbed it back, and kept on walking with other members of his team, he told newsmen.

Boysen was released from the hospital after doctors said they found no bruises and all X-ray reports negative. He said earlier he intended bringing assault charges against time indefinitely.

Durocher was suspended for the 1947 season by Chandler for conduct held to be detrimental to the national pastime. At that time, he was manager of the Brooklyn club.

Throughout last year, which he began as pilot of the Brooks and wound up as head of the Giants—once his mortal enemies—Leo's voice was muted and his protests against umpires' decisions mild.

It was a great season for the umpires and for the "jockeys" on the opposing teams, who took more chances in riding Durocher than they had in years.

For the once-loud one never before was a guy to pass up a fight. He had taken on players, newspapermen and others during his stormy career—on the ball field, behind the clubhouse or in the alley.

He was charged with felonious assault upon a spectator at a game in Brooklyn in July, 1945. The fan said Durocher beat him while a special Ebbets Field Guard held him.
